Children's Book Week, May 4-10 is the annual celebration of children's books and reading. Established in 1919, it is the longest-running national literacy initiative in the country.

Limited seating--RSVP to Elgin CommunityLibrary no later than May 1 wear your costume (or not), hear a story, do a superhero craft, and enjoy some snacks

Thanks to everyone who helped or shopped at the recent book sale! And especially thanks to the Connection Church for their hospitality and reaching out to the community.

The Friends made a little over $1700. What do they spend their money on? Things not covered by the City operating budget, such as bulk book purchasing, miscellaneous craft supplies, support of the various programs that the library puts on, and soon, there will be new area rugs at the front and back door plus the children's rug will be replaced.

May 26 @ 9:30: Leaving Time by Jodi Picoult

For more than a decade, Jenna Metcalf has never stopped thinking about her mother, Alice, who mysteriously disappeared in the wake of a tragic accident. Refusing to believe she was abandoned, Jenna searches for her mother regularly online and pores over the pages of Alice's old journals. A scientist who studied grief among elephants, Alice wrote mostly of her research among the animals she loved, yet Jenna hopes the entries will provide a clue to her mother's whereabouts.

Desperate to find the truth, Jenna enlists two unlikely allies in her quest: Serenity Jones, a psychic who rose to fame finding missing persons, only to later doubt her gifts, and Virgil Stanhope, the jaded private detective who'd originally investigated Alice's case along with the strange, possibly linked death of one of her colleagues. As the three work together to uncover what happened to Alice, they realize that in asking hard questions, they'll have to face even harder answers.

As Jenna's memories dovetail with the events in her mother's journals, the story races to a mesmerizing finish. A deeply moving, gripping, and intelligent page-turner, Leaving Time is Jodi Picoult at the height of her powers.
